New America Media, News Report, Louis Nevaer, Posted: Jul 12, 2012

Editor's Note: Recent media reports of money laundering activities involving U.S. banks and Mexico's drug cartels point to a disturbing trend. NAM contributor Louis Nevaer says that everything taken into account, the amounts involved rival investments made by some of the U.S.'s largest trade partners.

On Sept. 26, in the rural town of Iguala, in the state of Guerrero in southwest Mexico,
